Dear Mr. Reeves,

I wish to acknowledge your firm and in particular Anthony Bileddo. I recently had the opportunity to work with him on a job search, and found him to be extremely professional, helpful, and just a pleasure to work with.

Throughout my professional career of 29 years, I have worked with several different recruiters. I would have to rate Anthony as one of the top. He worked hard to assure opportunities offered would be a good fit, and was always willing to listen to my concerns. I also found he offered very sage advice, to which I took heed, and I am certain it helped in landing an offer to an outstanding organization of which I am extremely excited to join. I am also pretty sure that Anthony was on vacation as we wrapped up this deal; however he was always readily available and quick to respond.

It is rare that I am so moved to write an acknowledgement of this nature, so that tells you what an outstanding asset he is to your firm.

As my future may present opportunities to utilize the services of a recruiting agency, you can rest assured I will be in touch.

Sincerely,

Julie A. Nampel, RN, MSN

Anthony:

Copy for you. It was my pleasure to work with you. Aside from Irish with whom you spoke to as a reference, I have given your name to another colleague.

Thank you again!
Julie
