BUD HARRISON ATTAINS PARTNER STATUS

(Elgin, Illinois) April 30, 2010 – Based upon outstanding career performance and achievement of Healthcare Practice Standards, Bud Harrison has been named Partner within Management Recruiters of Elgin's Healthcare Practice. He officially attained this status on February 6, 2010.

"Bud is one of the most dedicated search professionals in the industry," said Michael Reeves, owner and manager of Management Recruiters of Elgin. "He consistently gives superior service to both his clients and his candidates, and has been rewarded by their loyalty to him."

Harrison, who has been in the business since 2006, specializes in healthcare. "I owe a great deal to the mentoring and training I've received over the years," he said. "This is a very rewarding career – one that truly provides the opportunity to enhance the companies I work for and the candidates I place."

Management Recruiters of Elgin, which has been in operation since 1976, also has recruitment specialties in the Renewable Energy, Healthcare, Managed Care, Patent Law/Legal, Healthcare IT, Local Market, Engineering, and Commercial Finance industries.

"In today's highly competitive marketplace, this achievement is a testament to the dedication and professionalism of Bud and the Healthcare Practice at Management Recruiters of Elgin," said Tony McKinnon, President of MRINetwork, which is headquartered in Philadelphia. "We are very proud of them and of the high level of service they consistently deliver to their clients and their candidates."

Reeves noted that Harrison has been a consistent high performer over the years he has been in the business. He has also been named a Pacesetter the last 2 years and Top 100 Account Executive Worldwide in 2009.
